

diligence presentations. In some cases, these payments also compensate [redacted] for administrative services it provides in connection with AI sponsors' offerings.

The AI sponsors with which Osaic FA has direct marketing support arrangements are:

AEI Fund Management	Inland Real Estate
Apollo Global Management	Liberty Street Advisors
Ares Wealth Management Solutions, LLC	Mewbourne Development Corporation
Bluerock Capital Markets LLC	Passco Companies
Capital Square Realty Advisors, LLC	Sierra Crest
Goldman Sachs	Steben & Co.
Griffin Capital	US Energy
Hines Real Estate

You should be aware that there are AIs available through Osaic FA's investment advisory programs that do not pay Osaic FA any marketing support payments and therefore are generally less expensive for you to use than AIs that do make such payments to Osaic FA.

The marketing support payments that Osaic FA receives from the above AI sponsors create financial incentives for Osaic FA that result in conflicts of interest for [redacted]. In particular, [redacted] has a conflict of interest given its financial incentive to offer the AI sponsors and AIs that make these payments to [redacted] and to recommend that you use AI sponsors and AIs that make such payments to [redacted] rather than other available AI sponsors and AIs that do not make such payments to [redacted]. In addition, [redacted] has a financial incentive to offer the AI sponsors and AIs that make the highest rate and amount of marketing support payments to [redacted] and to recommend that you use those AI sponsors and AIs, rather than other available AI sponsors and AIs that make relatively lower or no marketing support payments to [redacted].

[redacted] further, AI sponsors pay [redacted] more or less depending on the particular AI or share class sold, certain sponsors subject their flat payments per sales transaction to minimum sale thresholds, and certain AI sponsors place caps on the aggregate payments [redacted] can receive. Given these facts, [redacted] has a conflict of interest financial incentive to: (i) recommend that you use the AIs and share classes that generate the highest rate and amount of marketing support payments to [redacted] rather than other available AIs and share classes that generate relatively lower or no marketing support payments to [redacted]; (ii) recommend that you execute transactions at levels that exceed the minimum sale thresholds below which [redacted] not receive marketing support payments from the AI sponsors; and (iii) recommend that you use AIs from sponsors for which [redacted] has not reached the cap on the aggregate marketing support payments [redacted] can receive, because [redacted] limits the AI sponsors available to its broker-dealer clients to only those AI sponsors that make marketing support payments to [redacted] and its financial professionals cannot recommend that broker-dealer clients use AIs from AI sponsors that do not make these payments to [redacted] and that could potentially cost them less, and that otherwise be suitable for them and in their best interest. This presents a conflict of interest for [redacted] and its financial professionals given their financial incentive to recommend that broker-dealer clients use the AIs that are available through [redacted] platform [redacted] addresses these conflicts of interest by (i) disclosing them to you; (ii) not sharing any of these marketing support payments with the [redacted] financial professionals that recommend AI sponsors, AIs, and share classes for your account; and (iii) supervising Osaic FA financial professionals' recommendations to evaluate whether they are suitable for you and in your best interest.

Other Marketing Support from AI Sponsors

In addition to the marketing support payments that Osaic FA receives through the formal marketing support arrangements described above, AI sponsors make flat dollar payments to Osaic FA from time to time. These payments are made for specific activities, including, but not limited to, exhibit booth space, presentation opportunities at Osaic FA meetings or similar events, attendance at conferences, educational events for Osaic FA financial professionals, and participation in other training and educational events. Some AI sponsors also reimburse Osaic FA and, indirectly, its financial professionals for certain expenses in connection with due diligence meetings, training and educational events, seminars that offer educational opportunities for clients, and similar events. Some AI sponsors also provide Osaic FA and its financial professionals with nominal gifts and gratuities, including, but not limited to, merchandise bearing the brand or logo of the AI sponsor. For similar reasons as those noted above, these arrangements create financial incentives for Osaic FA that result in conflicts of interest for Osaic FA. Osaic FA addresses these conflicts of interest by adopting measures similar to those noted above and also by requiring every AI sponsor, including their wholesalers, employees, and agents, to comply with Osaic FA's non-cash compensation policies as they relate to additional payments and compensation, including, but not limited to, marketing support. AI sponsors must also provide documents or other information to evidence compliance with these policies upon request.

You should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, costs, and expenses of an AI and particular share class before investing. This and other important information is available in each AI's prospectus, private placement memorandum, or other offering documents, which are available from your financial professional or Osaic FA upon request. AIs are subject to illiquidity risks, risks related to the difficulty in valuing certain AIs as a result of the assets in which they invest, risks related to the inability to obtain daily or otherwise current valuations for certain AIs, and other special risks and some AIs are speculative. Additionally, AI investments will in certain circumstances involve additional fees and expenses, including, but not limited to, fees imposed by AI platforms and investment vehicles through which Osaic FA makes certain AIs available to clients. There is no assurance that the stated investment objectives of an AI will be met. You must meet specific suitability standards before investing in an AI and these suitability standards vary by state and AI. Investing in AIs entails material risks and clients could lose all or a portion of their investment.
