When acting as the broker-dealer of record for your account, LFA is responsible for and performs a number of broker-dealer functions and services with respect to your account and any securities transactions therein. LFA's responsibilities include, but are not limited to: collecting, verifying, and maintaining documentation about you and your account; approval and acceptance of your account; reviewing and supervising activities, including trading activities, within your account; reviewing and either accepting or rejecting any transactions within your account; transmission of all orders with respect to your account; supervision of all orders and accounts, including maintaining compliance with best interest standards and regulatory requirements, as applicable; and ensuring that any mutual fund orders are in compliance with the terms of the applicable prospectus. LFA maintains substantial operational, compliance, and technology resources in support of its broker-dealer operations necessary to provide these and other services in connection with your account and any transactions effected in your account. As a result, LFA generally sets the commissions, trading/execution fees, and brokerage service charges detailed herein at amounts and rates that are higher than the related fees, costs, and expenses, if any, that LFA pays to NFS for clearance and execution of transactions and related services. For certain charges imposed by LFA (e.g., LFA's brokerage service charge for Transfer of Assets Delivery for Non-Retirement Accounts (to Another Firm)), LFA pays no related fees, costs, or expenses to NFS. These are sometimes called "markups" and they vary by product, the type of service provided, the nature and amount of transactions involved (if applicable), the type of account, and other factors. This practice presents a conflict of interest for LFA and generally will result in your payment of higher fees, costs, and expenses than you would otherwise pay to NFS or other available service providers.

For additional information, please visit www.lfa-sagemark.com and review the information available under My accounts—Cost.

Please contact your LFA financial professional with any questions you may have regarding the fees and charges applicable to your accounts and transactions and LFA's related conflicts of interest.
