When acting as the broker-dealer of record on your account, LFA is responsible for and performs a number of broker-dealer functions and services with respect to your account and any securities transactions therein. LFA's responsibilities include, but are not limited to: collecting, verifying and maintaining documentation about you and your account, approval and acceptance of your account, reviewing and supervising activities, including trading activities, within your account, reviewing and either accepting or rejecting any transactions within your account, transmission of all orders with respect to your account, supervision of all orders and accounts, including maintaining compliance with best interest standards and regulatory requirements, as applicable, and ensuring that any mutual fund orders are in compliance with the terms of the applicable prospectus. LFA maintains substantial operational, compliance and technology resources in support of its broker-dealer operations necessary to provide these and other services in connection with your account and any transactions effected in your account. As a result, the transaction and service charges assessed by LFA and disclosed herein are generally higher than the fees and expenses that LFA has and pays to NFS for clearance and execution of transactions and related services and are a source of revenue to LFA. Please contact your LFA financial professional with any questions you may have regarding the fees and charges applicable to your account.
