

Safe Harbor Matching Contribution and Automatic Deferral Notice (2024 Plan Year) Shands Jacksonville Retirement Plan

If you are an eligible participant in the Shands Jacksonville Retirement Plan (the “Plan”), you may make contributions (called “Salary Deferrals”) directly from your paycheck into the Plan. The ability to make Salary Deferrals provides you with an easy method to save for retirement on a tax-deferred basis. If you make Salary Deferrals to the Plan, you generally will not be taxed on those deferrals or on any earnings on those contributions until you withdraw those amounts from the Plan. However, see the discussion under “Taxation of Salary Deferrals” below for special tax rules that apply if you make Roth Deferrals under the Plan.

If you have any questions regarding your eligibility to make Salary Deferrals under the Plan or any other questions regarding the Plan that are not addressed in this Notice, please review your Summary Plan Description. For example, Article 4 of the Summary Plan Description contains a discussion of the eligibility conditions applicable to Salary Deferrals and the safe harbor contributions. In addition, from time to time we may make changes to the Plan and/or Summary Plan Description, which are described in a Summary of Material Modifications supplementing the Summary Plan Description. Any reference to the Summary Plan Description in this Notice includes any Summary of Material Modifications we may have issued with respect to the Plan. If you do not have a copy of the Summary Plan Description or any Summary of Material Modifications, if applicable, contact your Plan Administrator named below.

Safe Harbor Matching Contribution

For the Plan Year beginning in 2024, if you make Salary Deferrals into the Plan, you may receive a special safe harbor matching contribution (“safe harbor contribution”) under the Plan, provided you satisfy any eligibility conditions for such contribution. This Notice provides important information about the safe harbor contribution as well as other information regarding:

- your right to make Salary Deferrals under the Plan;
- when you can change your Salary Deferral election;
- how your Plan account will be invested;
- the eligibility conditions for receiving the special safe harbor contribution;
- whether there are any other contributions available under the Plan; and
- other valuable information about your retirement benefits under the Plan.

Notwithstanding any language in this Notice to the contrary, we reserve the right to amend the Plan at any time during the Plan Year to reduce or suspend the safe harbor contribution. If we decide to reduce or suspend the safe harbor contribution, we will provide you with a supplemental notice at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such reduction or suspension describing the consequences of the amendment. Any amendment to reduce or suspend safe harbor contributions will not affect any contributions earned prior to the effective date of such amendment.

For a full discussion of your benefits under the Plan, please review your Summary Plan Description.

Procedures for making Salary Deferrals under the Plan -- automatic deferral feature. To assist you in your decision whether to make Salary Deferrals to the Plan, we have established an automatic deferral feature. Under this automatic deferral feature if you do not specifically elect an alternative deferral amount (including zero), we will automatically withhold 3% from your paycheck each pay period and deposit that amount into the Plan in your name as a Salary Deferral. This is called your automatic contribution rate. If you wish to defer a greater or lesser amount (including no deferral), you must specifically elect to defer a different amount. If you have any questions about how to change your automatic contribution rate, you should contact your Plan Administrator.

Application of automatic deferral feature. The current automatic deferral feature under the Plan applies to all eligible participants who become a participant on or after 1-1-2014 and who do not complete a Salary Deferral election designating an alternate deferral percentage (including an election not to defer).

Special withdrawal rule. If amounts are automatically withheld from your paycheck, you may withdraw those amounts within 90 days after the first amounts are withheld from your pay, regardless of any other withdrawal restrictions under the Plan. If you withdraw automatic deferrals under this special withdrawal rule, you will lose any matching contributions associated with those deferrals. Such withdrawal also will not be subject to the 10% penalty for early withdrawal. If you withdraw the automatic deferrals, no additional deferrals will be withheld from your paycheck unless you enter into a subsequent election to defer into the Plan.

Taxation of Salary Deferrals. The amount that you defer into the Plan reduces your taxable income, meaning you do not pay income taxes on those amounts until you withdraw your deferrals from the Plan. Any gains or earnings made from the investment of these contributions within the Plan are also not subject to income tax until they are withdrawn from the Plan. Alternatively, you may elect to treat all or any portion of your deferrals as Roth Deferrals. Roth Deferrals do not reduce your taxable income when made so that you will pay taxes on the amount contributed as a Roth Deferral. However, if you take a “qualified distribution” of your Roth Deferrals, you will not be taxed on any amounts attributable to those dollars, including any earnings on those amounts, at the time of the qualified distribution. To be a qualified distribution, the distribution must occur at least 5 years after the year in which you first make a Roth Deferral to the Plan and must be on account of death, disability or attainment of age 59½.

Change in deferral amount. You may increase or decrease the amount of your current Salary Deferrals or stop making Salary Deferrals altogether, as of any designated election date as set forth in the Salary Deferral election or other written procedures describing the time period for changing Salary Deferral elections. However, regardless of the Plan’s normal deferral procedures, you will have a reasonable time after receipt of this notice and before the first amount is withheld from your paycheck under the automatic deferral feature to modify the automatic contribution rate. In addition, unless provided otherwise under the Plan, you may revoke an existing deferral election at any time. Any change you make to your Salary Deferrals will become effective as of the next designated election date, and will remain in effect until modified or canceled during a subsequent election period.

Amount of safe harbor matching contribution. The safe harbor matching contribution will be a 100% matching contribution on all Salary Deferrals you make to the Plan up to 6% of compensation. The safe harbor matching contribution is based on Salary Deferrals you make during each payroll period during the Plan Year.

Eligibility for safe harbor contribution. You are eligible to receive a safe harbor contribution under the Plan if you satisfy the following requirements:

- Eligible Employee. The same definition of Eligible Employee that applies for regular matching contributions also applies for safe harbor contributions. See the Summary Plan Description for a description of the Eligible Employees who may receive a regular matching contribution under the Plan.
- Minimum service requirement. The same minimum service conditions as apply to regular matching contributions apply for purposes of determining eligibility for safe harbor contributions. See the Summary Plan Description for a discussion of the eligibility conditions applicable to regular matching contributions under the Plan.
- Minimum age requirement. No minimum age conditions apply for purposes of determining eligibility for safe harbor contributions.

Compensation. In determining the amount of the safe harbor contribution, your compensation must be considered. The Plan defines the types of compensation and the period for which compensation is taken into account for this purpose. Under the Plan, no compensation may be taken into account to the extent such compensation exceeds the compensation limit described under the Internal Revenue Code. See the Summary Plan Description for an explanation of the types of compensation that will be included for purposes of calculating the safe harbor contribution, including the maximum amount of compensation that may be taken into account in determining the contributions under the Plan.

Other contributions. The safe harbor contribution is in addition to any Salary Deferrals you may make to the Plan. In addition to the safe harbor contribution, the Plan provides for the following additional contributions:

- Discretionary employer contribution. We have the discretion to make an additional employer contribution on behalf of eligible participants under the Plan. We will decide each year how much (if any) we will contribute to the Plan as an employer contribution.
- Discretionary matching contribution. We have the discretion to make a matching contribution for eligible participants who contribute to the Plan. We will decide each year how much (if any) we will contribute as an additional matching contribution. Any matching contributions under this formula will only apply to contributions you make to the Plan up to 6% of compensation. Thus, you will not receive any additional matching contributions on contributions you make to the Plan above 6% of compensation. In no case will you receive a total matching contribution in excess of 4% of compensation.

For more information about the type of contributions permitted under the Plan, how the amount of such contributions is determined, any limits that might apply to such amounts and the eligibility conditions for receiving such contributions, see the Summary Plan Description.

Vesting of contributions. You are always 100% vested in the safe harbor contribution and any Salary Deferrals you make to the Plan. This means that you have an immediate ownership right to such contributions and you will not lose that right if you should terminate from employment. However, see below for restrictions on your ability to withdraw these amounts from the Plan.

As mentioned above, in addition to the safe harbor contribution, the Plan also provides for regular matching contributions and employer contributions. You will also be 100% vested in those contributions when they are contributed to the Plan.

Special provisions. In determining the vesting schedules under the Plan, the following special provisions apply: Any Participant with an account balance as of 12-31-2015 who is actively employed or rehired on or after 1-1-2016 will become 100% vested in their account balance. Matching and Employer Contributions for any Participant who terminated employment prior to 1-1-2016 will continue to be subject to the following 5 year graded vesting schedule: 0% after 1 Year of Service, 25% after 2 Years of Service, 50% after 4 Years of Service, 75% after 4 Years of Service, and 100% after 5 Years of Service. Any forfeitures that arise under the Plan may be used to pay Plan expenses or be allocated in any manner as the Employer may decide.

Withdrawal restrictions. Generally, you may withdraw amounts held on your behalf under the Plan upon disability or termination of employment. In addition, the following withdrawal options apply while you are still employed.

- Salary Deferrals. You may withdraw amounts attributable to Salary Deferrals from the Plan while you are still employed under the following circumstances:
 - You have reached age 59½.
 - You experience a hardship (as defined in the Plan). See the Summary Plan Description (or other communication) for a list of permissible hardship events.
 - You are in certain qualified active military duty. Contact your Plan Administrator if you have any questions regarding the availability of a distribution under this provision.
 - You are deemed to be terminated while on active duty for a period of at least 30 days while performing service in the Uniformed Services. Contact your Plan Administrator if you have any questions regarding the availability of a distribution under this provision.
 - You have a “qualified” childbirth or adoption expense (up to $5,000 per child). Contact your Plan Administrator for more information on “qualified” childbirth and adoption expenses.
- Safe harbor contributions. Safe harbor contributions are generally eligible for distribution at the same time as Salary Deferrals. However, you may not take a withdrawal of your safe harbor contributions on account of a hardship or on account of qualified military service.
- Rollover contributions. You may withdraw any rollover contributions you make to the Plan at any time.
- Other contributions. As described above, the Plan also provides for employer contributions and matching contributions. You may withdraw amounts attributable to such contributions while you are still employed if:
 - You have attained age 59½.
 - You have a “qualified” childbirth or adoption expense (up to $5,000 per child). Contact your Plan Administrator for more information on “qualified” childbirth and adoption expenses.

Special distribution rules. In applying the withdrawal provisions under the Plan, the following special rules apply:

- Hardship distributions under the Plan shall be limited to the Lincoln Alliance program.

Plan investments. The amounts contributed to the Plan on your behalf will be invested in accordance with the Plan’s investment procedures. Any earnings on the investment of your contributions under the Plan will be allocated to your Plan account.

The Plan allows you to direct the investment of your Plan account within the available investment options under the Plan. If you do not elect to invest your Plan account, such amounts will automatically be invested in the Plan's default investment fund. Even if your Plan account is invested in the Plan's default investment fund, you have the continuing right to change your default investment and elect to have your Plan account invested in any other available investment options under the Plan.

To learn more about the available investments under the Plan, you may contact your Plan Administrator.

Additional information. Please refer to the Summary Plan Description for additional information regarding Plan contributions, withdrawal restrictions, and other Plan features.
